TKF Community Hero of the Week

“My patients have been so excited to hear that they've made it off the waitlist. I've had individuals cry, voice appreciation, and ask me to call their family members about the good news. I can almost see their stress and anxiety evaporate as they are told that they now don't have to pay for their transportation to dialysis. For some, it's a life-changer.” - Robin Fair, TKF Social Worker Partner

Even heroes need a helping hand sometimes — and that's where you come in.

When you support the TKF Community Heroes Campaign, your donation provides emergency assistance for clients struggling to keep up with rent, utilities, and other critical needs while managing kidney disease. You may not leap tall buildings, but with your help, someone can stay in their home and focus on healing — and that's a superpower in itself.
